

San Diego Guide

Gaslamp Quarter

Description: The original waterfront district of San Diego developed by Alonzo Horton in the 1860s, this area was revived in the 1990s to become the “historic heart” of San Diego and the center of downtown night life. The architecture is a mixture of Victorian-era buildings and modern skyscrapers, housing 100+ restaurants, pubs, nightclubs, shops and lofts. More information and local business coupons at <http://www.gaslamp.org/>

How to get there from the Hilton Bayfront: Walk across Harbor Dr. The area is between 4th and 6th St. and Broadway and Harbor Dr.

Across the street from the conference hotel!
